Griffith and Bloomfield honored at annual CBR Awards banquet

Columbus, Ohio - January 29, 2010 - At The Columbus Board of Realtor's annual C/I Awards Banquet held on January 28, 2010, both Mike Griffith, SIOR and Paul W. Bloomfield, CCIM, SIOR of Kohr Royer Griffith, Inc. were honored with individual awards for 2009. 140 REALTORS® and their families gathered to honor the hardest working individuals in the Commercial and Investment Industry in the Columbus area.

Griffith, a retired member of Kohr Royer Griffith, Inc., was awarded the Erika Blumstein Memorial Award recognizing professionalism in the industry and community involvement. Griffith began his real estate career in 1960, joining Oscar L. Thomas and Company, which was later rechristened to include Griffith's name. Griffith has served as President of the Columbus Board of Realtors, President of BOMA, president of the Ohio chapter of SIOR and Chairman of the national SIOR Inter-City transactions committee. He has been active on the Salvation Army Area Board, the West Mound Street Corp and the Board of the Better Business Bureau.

Bloomfield was awarded the first ever Volunteer Service Award. With Kohr Royer Griffith, Inc. since 1997, Bloomfield is on the Boards of Directors of the National Church Residences group, Pilot Dogs, Inc., the Mirolo Charitable Foundation, and the Heritage Day Health Center. He has also been on the New Leadership Board for COSI Columbus and has volunteered for Habitat for Humanity and as an Upper Arlington Youth Football Coach. In addition, Bloomfield has given time to the industry, presently sitting on the C/I Steering Committee, the C/I Standard Forms Committee, and the Society of Office and Industrial Realtors Organization.
